

Where are Israel's true friends when she needs them?

In the midst of Israel's war with Hezbollah and Hamas, Senate Democrats were quick to support Israel's right to self-defense. 43 out of the Senate's 44 Democrats co-sponsored a bill condemning the actions of Hezbollah and Hamas and asserting Israel's right to defend herself while only 19 out of the Senate's 55 Republicans did so.

Why did more than 65% of the Republican Senators fail to co-sponsor this resolution?

Where were the Republicans when Israel needed strong bi-partisan support?
